Date: Tuesday June 2 & Wednesday June 3, 2026

Registration: 8:00am / Class Hours: 9:00am-4:00pm

Tuition: FREE LAW ENFORCEMENT BASED TRAINING

In continuation of providing our law enforcement community with proactive gang training, Morris Co. Sheriff James M. Gannon is proud to announce the "2026 Annual Gang Awareness & Identification Training Seminar" that will be hosted at Saint Elizabeth University. This highly recommended event is a FREE Two-Day Training open to the Criminal Justice Community. The seminar is structured to feature new speakers and timely topics, focusing on advanced awareness, identification, investigation & safety techniques related to prominent criminal organizations that have infiltrated the Northeast.

This year's event will be co-sponsored by Middle Atlantic-Great Lakes Organized Crime Law Enforcement Network (MAGLOCLN), Saint Elizabeth University's Criminal Justice Police Studies Institute, New Jersey State Commission of Investigation and Gang Suppression Through Educational Programs (GSTEP).
