Prop 36 & CALECPA Search Warrants

Date: December 3, 2025

Time: 0800-1700

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This is a unique course for all law enforcement personnel. It is imperative every law enforcement officer understand the intricacies of both Prop 36 and California's Electronic Communications Privacy Act (CALECPA).

The morning session will cover the recently passed Proposition 36, which significant changes laws and procedures for mental health as well as theft and narcotics related offenses. This will be a unique prospection examined by a prosecutor and highlights mandated drug and mental health treatment, tougher penalties for serial retail thieves and more tools to hold drug dealers accountable.

The afternoon session will cover CALEPCA, which established significant changes in the law and requires a search warrant to access electronic information and devices, including information from those on Fourth Amendment Waivers (Parole & Supervision) and in custody. If not properly written, the search warrant could be subject to legal implications.

Law Enforcement & Corrections Only – Credentials are Required to Attend

INSTRUCTOR:

James "Jay" Hoffman has over 20 years of prosecuting experience as a Deputy District Attorney.
